Free Legal Advice

Do you need some legal advice, or think you might? We can help you with criminal law, family law or any other legal issue. If you don't know where to turn and cannot afford a lawyer, let us help you.

Some issues may not be addressed at every clinic, as the lawyer on duty may not have the expertise in that specific area of law. You may have to wait for another session when a lawyer is available to answer questions in the area of law you are dealing with.

What types of advice are provided?

Lawyers may be able to provide advice on the following issues:

- Criminal Law
- Landlord/Tenant issues
- Human Rights
- WCB
- Debts
- Labour Law
- Small Claims
- Immigration
- Contracts
- Legal Documents
- Wills and Estates
- Family Law

Some issues may not be addressed at every clinic — you may have to wait for another session when a lawyer is available who can help you.

Funded by the Law Foundation of British Columbia

How do I access the Clinic?

1. Phone 1-877-762-6664 for an appointment as soon as you know you need help. Appointments are booked on a first come, first served basis.
2. The person who takes your call must know the name of the opposing party (this will be explained to you).
3. Directions will be given how to find the clinic.
