

We are inviting applications for a
Casual Transition House Workers

Posting:	# 2017-007
Hours of work:	"on-call" basis
The hourly rate:	Between $17.47 and $20.34
Submission Deadline:	Open Posting
Submit resume and cover letter to:	hr@vwts.ca

"Women will live with dignity and respect, free from violence and abuse"

Vernon Women's Transition House Society provides a wide range of supportive services for survivors of domestic and sexual violence through safe shelter, counselling, child and youth advocacy, outreach services, and collaborative community projects.

*We strive to retain a grassroots kind of atmosphere of women helping women.
Our work environment is casual and based on team work.*

Job Summary:

The Transition House Worker (THW) provides support, security, advocacy, information, education, crisis intervention and referrals to residents, and other women in the community who seek support by telephone or through drop-in to the Transition House (House). The THW participates as part of a team responsible for the effective functioning of the Transition House. On both individual and group basis, the THW enhances the quality of life for women and children by ensuring their safety, legal, emotional, social, and medical needs are met. Provides assistance to residents with morning and evening routines as applicable. During the Evening- (EN) Night Shift the THW sleeps through the night waking only to attend to unusual circumstances.

Qualifications:

Education, Training and Experience

- Diploma in Human/Social Services field
- Valid First Aid Certification
- One year recent related experience, which includes program delivery experience in a residential setting in the women-serving sector
- Demonstrated working knowledge of the justice system and issues/practices to violence against women
- Understanding of and demonstrated skills and ability to work from a feminist perspective
- Strong cultural competency and socially inclusive practice.
- A valid Driver's License and availability of personal vehicle for work purposes
- Completion of Transition House Core Modules may be required
- Specific knowledge regarding legislation, policy, and provincial and other government framework agencies and systems may be required

An equivalent combination of relevant education, training and experience will be considered. Qualifications for casual THW may differ.

Skills & Abilities

- Good oral, written and interpersonal communication skills
- Demonstrated ability to teach skills
- Ability to work effectively with others
- Good time and general management skills
- Proficient in basic computer applications, including Microsoft Office
- Ideal characteristics for position include personable, non-judgemental and insightful
- Ability to function independently and frequently under pressure, in an often chaotic environment, while managing multiple projects and deadlines

Responsibilities and Duties:

Client Service

The Transition House Worker provides a wide range of services to residents of the House, including intake and orientation, needs assessment and action plan development, provision of information and resources, referral to other services, safety and security monitoring, facilitation of conflict resolution, emotional support and encouragement, facilitation of group meetings, case reviews, risk assessment and safety planning, advocacy and accompaniment, and crisis intervention.

Programs Administration

The Transition House Worker is responsible for maintaining appropriate documentation and client records, including statistical information, log and report writing. The Transition House Worker performs some maintenance and housekeeping duties to ensure the House and office are well-maintained, assists with the orientation and training of students and volunteers, and reports potential problems, such as safety risks.

Organizational Role

The Transition House Worker is part of the Transition House Programs Team and actively participates and contributes to team meetings, program planning and training opportunities.

Community Role

The Transition House Worker supports clients in accessing other community services as required by each client's case, maintains positive relationships with providers through cooperative planning, maintains current knowledge of issues and resources. The Transition House Worker represents the Society positively and professionally and may provide presentations and public awareness activities about services and issues.

To Apply:

Please submit resume with cover letter to hr@vwts.ca by quoting Competition 2017-007 in the subject line.

Please note that the selected candidate will require:

- A satisfactory enhanced Criminal Record Check
- Membership with the BC Government and Service Employees' Union
- Availability for 6 shifts each week

While we appreciate all applications, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted